

Missing: Sweet Baby James (Paperback)

By Barbara A Whittington

Barbara A. Whittington, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Since we last visited the fictional town of Shady Creek, West Virginia, Vada Faith and John Waddell have welcomed a beautiful baby boy, Sweet Baby James. Their world shatters one afternoon when eight-month old James is missing from his play pen on the front porch of their old Victorian home. Is it a real kidnapping or is it a hoax? Duke Cobb, the town's only police officer, determines to get to the bottom of this mystery. As the hours pass, Vada Faith's trust in God wavers. She fluctuates between praying for her son's safety and making bargains she isn't sure she can keep. At a candlelight vigil in the park, Hope and Charity plead for the return of their baby brother. At the same time, two elderly sisters manage to knock the small town off its axis. Missing: Sweet Baby James is an unforgettable read, filled with unexpected twists and turns.
