The Light by Which We See Light: Or Nature and the Scriptures, a Course of Lectures Delivered Before of Lectures Delivered Ant (Classic Reprint) (Hardback)

By Tayler Lewis

Forgotten Books, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Light by Which We See Light: Or Nature and the Scriptures, a Course of Lectures Delivered Before of Lectures Delivered Ant The general title chosen for this little book is regarded as, more than any other, suggestive of its pervading thought. The study of nature alone is ever revealing more mysteries than it solves. At every step the dark ness grows faster than the light. Endless links, endless adaptations, ever terminating in the physical - endless repetitions, in fact, of the same forms of force, -they never lead us out of the labyrinth, but only extend farther and farther, on every side, the limitless unknown. The soul cannot rest in this. It would know the meaning of nature. It earnestly asks: What is it all about? The inquiry itself is a religious one, and re ligion alone can furnish the answer. However dim or feeble this may be, it immediately elevates us above the depressing effects of mere physical knowledge. But religion without revelation, or faith in some kind of communion with the Infinite mind, is a shadow. Hence, the idea...
