Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Mian is the brightest light on Pakistan's new literary horizon. -- Burl Barer, Edgar Award winner and New York Times best-selling author. In a world of lightning fast communication, one mistake can transcend time; destroy lives or save your soul. Deception, resentment, madness, and vengeance -- Ryan Campbell may be famous, but his life is a living hell. Ryan Campbell is a tireless champion of women's rights. His dedication unquestioned; his deeds exemplary. There is only one problem. In his inmost heart of hearts, Ryan Campbell hates women. Every battle for gender equality is a battle against his own resentments and ingrained prejudices. The greater his deeds, the deeper his shame. Confused and full of unrest, Ryan has only one question he can ask: Why me, God? Sarah was a normal young woman. She was almost through with her degree and was engaged to be married. With the simple click of a button, her life changed forever. Now, abandoned by those whom she once called friends, she can only ask the question: Why me, God? With insight, compassion and an acute sense of human drama, Mian explores the delicate balance between hypocrisy and redemption. Compelling, gripping, and filled with mystery, Victim of Shame will spark endless conversations, arguments, and discussions. Victim of Shame gives hope where there is none. Mian creates characters you can really feel for. -- Julie Achterhoff, Author-USA. Victim of Shame weaves a tale of faith, adversity and strength, landing individuals on paths they never thought possible. -- Ellen M. DuBois, Author-USA.
