Reviews

Comprehensive guide! Its this type of very good read through. It is actually written in simple words and phrases rather than difficult to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

Awakening Like denying spring to a flower, its glory never to be fulfilled, relinquishing the world around, unaided by the healing serenity of nature, and neglecting immediacy with a diversity of lives will befog in darkness the habitat of one's spirit within . --Bolko Rawicz Bolko Rawicz is a Vancouver-based poet who derives inspiration from a variety of personal experiences. In his first volume of contemporary poetry, he shares verse created during an eight-year time frame and written in a variety of styles--some highly symbolic, others more literal. From the thrills of falling in love to the hopeless doubt that surrounds regrets to the peace that accompanies spending time in nature to the questions and answers that complement a unique spiritual journey, Rawicz's fresh and captivating poems intertwine relatable emotions with real-life experiences that illuminate not just the challenges but also the joys of life. Something to Believe In provides a glimpse into one man's journey through a life well lived as he reflects on kindness, love, nature, Sunday mornings and everything in between.
