Audible Studios on Brilliance, 2016. CD-Audio. Condition: New. Unabridged. Language: English . Brand New. A beautiful actress of the 1920s faces painful decisions about her lovers and her future Star of the stage, Sunflower has everything but the attention she craves from her long-time--and married--lover, Lord Essington, a brilliant and intense man occupied with more intellectual thoughts. Eager for a more rewarding experience, Sunflower must decide whether another great man, the Australian Francis Pitt, will offer a more traditional relationship and happiness. Written during West s own psychoanalysis and never finished, Sunflower ponders topics of the power struggle between the sexes, and a woman s freedom to determine her romantic destiny. Drawn heavily from West s own relationships with H.G. Wells and Lord Beaverbrook, this roman a clef gives a glimpse of the author s own struggle to find a satisfying relationship. Dame Rebecca West, DBE (1892 - 1983) was an author, journalist, literary critic and travel writer. A prolific author in many genres, West was committed to feminist and liberal principles and was one of the foremost public intellectuals of the twentieth century. She met H.G. Wells in 1913, after her provocatively damning review of his novel Marriage prompted him to invite her to lunch. They fell in love, though Wells was married at the time, and their affair lasted ten years producing a son. In 1947 Time magazine called West, indisputably the world s number one woman writer and in 1954 Kenneth Tynan described her as, the best journalist alive . She was made CBE in 1949, in recognition of her outstanding contribution to British letters.
