Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2010. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Travels of Dursmirg: Summers at Daufuskie: This was not a fling. Jane and John got out of life s busy trap. Gone fishin instead of just a wishin became a reality. Cruise with John and Jane aboard their 46-foot sailboat to the Sea Islands of Florida, Georgia, and South Carolina. Meet the people of Daufuskie Island, a place where there are more ox carts than automobiles. Discover the riches and history of the Golden Isles of Georgia: Amelia Island, Cumberland Island, Jekyll Island, St. Simons Island, Sapelo Island, St. Catherines Island, and the coastal cities that are part of these special Sea Islands. Discover a sanctuary you can enter from the sea, secluded anchorages, magnificent beaches, bountiful fishing, pristine islands, and friendly fun-loving people. Looking for a new frontier-John and Jane found it. They slowed down and took note of what was around them. They said no to the world s empty expectations. John and Jane weren t going to be surviving just to buy something shiny and struggling to support the market place. Life is too short to be caught in that depression. There would be no seconds of their lives to waste. For them, being taught how to fish was a gift that kept on giving. A section of this book is devoted to Jane s best Recipes from the Galley of Dursmirg featuring Southern cooking and Sea Island seafood. These are the best of the best of fresh from the sea culinary delights. Travels of Dursmirg: Summers at Daufuskie is also published as Sailing the Sea Islands: Travels of Dursmirg, Volume 2. Both books have been updated, upgraded, and reformatted for easy reading, and eliminating verbal detritus. Travels...
