Your Health and Wealth addresses important end-of-life topics that many of us prefer to avoid: death, money, and grief. Yet it is healthy for mind and spirit to identify and record important personal and business information while you and your spouse or loved one are still living. Do you know key aspects about your loved one? For example: - car title location - Internet password - funeral wishes - business succession plan Lee Buchanan has gathered into one place the information you need to fill out. She also shares warm, personal wisdom about emotions and experiences that arise when a loved one passes. Whether you are an organizational wizard or someone who hasn't written a check or balanced a checkbook, Lee's presentation is a resource to appreciate now and in years to come. READERS PRAISE YOUR HEALTH AND WEALTH A MUST read for anyone who wants to achieve inner peace in a dynamic and often chaotic world . --international best-selling author Tim Connor This little book is big on practicals--finding out and recording important personal...
