Excerpt from Portraits of Republican and Democratic Candidates: With the Nominating Speeches, and Sketches of the Lives of the Candidates The following is the speech of Judge West, of Ohio, presenting the name of Mr. Blaine as a candidate for the Presidency: As a delegate in the Chicago Convention of 1860, the proudest service of my life was performed by voting for the nomination of that inspired emancipator, the first Republican President of the United States. Applause. Four and twenty years of the grandest history of recorded times has distinguished the ascendancy of the Republican party. The skies have lowered, and reverses have threatened. Our flag is still there, waving above the mansion of the Presidency, not a stain on its folds, not a cloud on its glory. Whether it shall maintain that grand ascendancy, depends upon the action of this great council. With bated breath a nation awaits the result. On it are fixed the eyes of 20, 000, 000 of Republican freemen in the North. On it, or to it, rather, are stretched forth the...
