Lessons from the Hanoi Hilton: Six Characteristics of High Performance Teams (Hardback)

By Peter Fretwell, Taylor Baldwin Kiland

Naval Institute Press, United States, 2013. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 132 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. Why were the American POWs imprisoned at the Hanoi Hilton so resilient in captivity and so successful in their subsequent careers? This book presents six principles practiced within the POW organizational culture that can be used to develop high-performance teams everywhere. The authors offer examples from both the POWs time in captivity and their later professional lives that identify, in real-life situations, the characteristics necessary for sustainable, high-performance teamwork. The book takes readers inside the mind of James Stockdale, a fighter pilot with a degree in philosophy, who was the senior ranking officer at the Hanoi prison. The theories Stockdale practiced become readily understandable in this book. Drawing parallels between Stockdale s guiding philosophies from the Stoic Epictetus and the principles of modern sports psychology, Peter Fretwell and Taylor Baldwin Kiland show readers how to apply these principles to their own organizations and create a culture with staying power. Originally intending their book to focus on Stockdale s leadership style, the authors found that his approach toward completing a mission was to assure that it could be accomplished without him. Stockdale,...
