

We Can Speak for Ourselves: Parent Involvement and Ideologies of Black Mothers in Chicago (Paperback)

By Billye Sankofa Waters

Sense Publishers, United States, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This work is an intervention of self-representation that explores experiences of five Black mothers of the same Chicago elementary school with respect to their relationship with the author - a qualitative researcher - over a period of two years. Black feminist epistemology is the framework that directed this project, fieldwork, and interpretation of the findings. Additionally, this work employs tools of poetry, counternarratives, and critical ethnography. Billye Sankofa Waters reiterates the plaintive lament of the mothers of 1970s Boston when they said, When we fight about education we're fighting for our lives. This story of parents in Chicago is powerful, poignant, and oh so familiar. This is a must read! - Gloria Ladson-Billings, Kellner Family Distinguished Chair in Urban Education, University of Wisconsin-Madison The brilliantly insightful Dr. Sankofa Waters draws upon extensive qualitative and participatory research to explore the ways that Black mothers come to know and participate in their children's education. We Can Speak for Ourselves plumbs Black feminist epistemology and critical theory to create a new model that reimagines the critical terrain of both public and private African...
