Neurological Lectures and Addresses (Classic Reprint) (Hardback)

By Horatio C Wood

Forgotten Books, 2017. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Neurological Lectures and Addresses Symptomatology in any department of medicine is a study of the first importance, but in mental medicine it at present almost bounds our horizon. To the study of this symptomatology men are urged not only by the needs of the insane but also by the necessities of the sane. If there be one thought more than another which ought not to be forgotten, it is that the human mind diseased is the human mind still. The coming on of insanity marks not the appearance of a new entity or a new force. The old entity or the old force simply goes astray. It is the failure to grasp this clearly which has lead many a lawyer to say to the expert; You crazy doctors believe that everybody is insane, and has occasionally betrayed the unwary alienist into acknowledging that this assertion is true. I say distinctly that it is not true. Sanity is the condition of the great bulk of mankind, but the impulse, the mood, the failure of judgment, the lack of coherent thought -...
