By D U Okonkwo

A Few Words Press Limited. Paperback. Condition: New. 202 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.5in. No ordinary business trip No ordinary plane crash No ordinary way out Nina Bishop has worked hard for everything she has. Left to raise her three younger siblings at the tender age of seventeen, she's used to solving problems. Now a partner in the law firm she established with two friends, she's thrilled when their biggest client Parker Drayton, organizes the business trip. She knows it's a great business opportunity. There's only one drawback: desperate to begin healing the rift between him and his two grown sons, Justin and Hugh, Parker has brought them along. Even before take-off the tension between Parker and his sons is palpable. But when Hugh causes their small plane to crash, plunging them all into capricious backcountry, Nina sees they've been put to the ultimate test. In the aftermath of the crash, with no food or shelter, and only looming snow-capped mountains for company, time is running out to save themselves. And when an avalanche hits, blocking any possible escape, Nina realizes their fight for survival has only just begun. About the Salzburg Saga SPIRAL is the first book in a...
