

Tehran Tales (Paperback)

By Mojgan Imani Roshanagh

Soul Asylum Poetry, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Mojgan Imani Roshanagh is from Terhan, Iran, and this is Mojgan's first published book. An aspiring poet and novelist, with a soft touch, and beautiful stroke of the pen. Born March 1964, in Ardebil, Azarbayjan Province, moved to Tehran when she was three. Mojgan finished high school when she was 16 and it coincided with the 1979 revolution which caused the closure of universities for 4 years in order to make a cultural revolution as well. Mojgan gave up formal education and started working and reading classic literature of Europe and U.S, old copies of Newsweek and Time and anything that was being translated and published by Iranian authors . This collection of short stories and poems is Mojgan's first publishing, but we are sure there will be many more as Mojgan continues to write poetry, and is working on two novels currently. We are sure you will love the touching, emotional writing of Mojgan, and once you have picked up this book, you will be looking for more by this author. ISBN # 978-1-926876-29-0 Price: C$16.99.
