PRAISE FOR BREATHING FOR TWO: In this page-turner, veteran anesthesiologist Pascoe offers a riveting portrait of surgery's most harrowing relationship and a breathtaking (pun intended!) account of what it means to hold another person's life in one's hands. -- Amazon reader
What I most enjoyed about this very personal journey is that Pascoe reveals in an unflinching way his mistakes, narrow brushes with disaster, as well as his victories, and how it all has changed him during his thirty years of anesthesia practice. -- Amazon reader
It's the kind of book that makes you deeply interested in things you never thought about before. -- Amazon reader

Intrigued or spooked by what happens in an operating theatre, Breathing for Two is a seat on the stage, a short book that will change the way you think about life, and breath. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book...
