Scribe Publications, Australia, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. New edition. Language: English . Brand New Book. Ruth and her cousin Naomi live in rural Wisconsin, part of an isolated religious community. The girls lives are ruled by the rhythms of nature - the harsh winters, the hunting seasons, the harvesting of crops - and by their families beliefs. Beneath the surface of this closed, frozen world, hidden dangers lurk. Then Ruth learns that Naomi harbours a terrible secret. She searches for solace in the mysteries of the natural world: broken fawns, migrating birds, and the strange fish deep beneath the ice. Can the girls prayers for deliverance be answered? Sufficient Grace is a story of lost innocence and the unfailing bond between two young women. It is at once devastating and beautiful, and ultimately transcendent.
